PATIENT COMFORT MENU

At Ledgeview Dental Care we know that the prospect of having dental work completed can bring on feelings of nervousness and even anxiety. Sometimes this is the product of a negative experience in the past or simply apprehension that the experience will be uncomfortable. Whatever the reason, we want to make your experience as pleasant as possible to make those feelings of anxiety a thing of the past.

Please see below for amenities and techniques we are proud to offer our patients in our quest to build long-term relationships through positive, stress-free experiences. Please let us know if any of the following amenities might make your appointment better.
